Program Topic

Ships are safe in the harbor but that's not why ships were built. We need to constantly move out of our comfort zone if we want to live and not just exist – in our relationship with God, others, our pathway in life and our very selves. When we pass through the storms of life we will be purified and enlightened. But like a good sailor we will become addicted to the adventures in life. We find our confidence in God who assures us: "When you pass through the waters . . . they will not overwhelm you. When you walk through the fire you will not be consumed" (Is 43).

Fr. Paul Coutinho, S.J.

is the author of the popular books, "How Big is Your God: The Freedom to Experience the Divine," "Just As You Are: Opening Your Life to the Infinite Love of God." and now "An Ignatian Pathway: Experiencing the Mystical Dimension of the Spiritual Exercises." Jesuit, Fr. Paul has taught spirituality and psychology at St. Louis University for several years. He travels the globe bringing the flavor of Eastern tradition to Western spirituality. We are blessed to have him with us again!
