Program Topic

The great poet Homer was the first one to use the passive voice in his writings around 400 BCE. He was impaired in his speech, hearing and was blind. He lived in a world of quiet vibrations that took him to places beyond the mind's imagination.

The passive voice is counter culture and provides us that space where we will experience the Divine Essence and our true divine identity. We will flow with the rhythm of life and experience peace and freedom in the midst of the chaos of our lives.

Fr. Paul Coutinho, S.J.

is the author of the popular books, "How Big is Your God: The Freedom to Experience the Divine," "Just As You Are: Opening Your Life to the Infinite Love of God." and now "An Ignatian Pathway: Experiencing the Mystical Dimension of the Spiritual Exercises." Jesuit, Fr. Paul has taught spirituality and psychology at St. Louis University for several years. He travels the globe bringing the flavor of Eastern tradition to Western spirituality. We are blessed to have him with us once again!
