REAL PRESENCE: The Practice of Compassion A Weekend Retreat for Everyone March 23 - 25, 2012

This retreat will trace how our identity, community, spirituality, and ministry find their meaning in the practice of compassion. In the solitude of prayer, in the shelter of each other's care, and in the challenge of each other's witness, we find the courage to be a compassionate presence.

Presenter: Rev. Joseph Nassal, C.P.P.S

Rev. Joe Nassal, C.P.P.S., is the author of eight books including The Conspiracy of Compassion, Rest Stops for the Soul, and Stations of the Crib. A Missionary of the Precious Blood, he has been engaged in retreat, renewal and reconciliation ministry since 1988, including three years as director of Shantivanam, the House of Prayer for the Archdiocese of Kansas City. Since 2002, he has been involved in establishing the Precious Blood Center for Reconciliation on the south side of Chicago. Ordained in 1982, Joe has also served in parish and justice and peace ministry and in formation, vocation, and leadership for his religious community. He presently serves as Provincial for the Kansas City Province.
